

William E. Hamilton was born in Dade City, and is a third generation Pasco resident. William moved from Dade City to St. Leo in 1967, and has been employed as a superintendent with the same electrical company for the past 20 years.

He has been a St. Leo town Commissioner for the past 8 years and has endeavored to strive for sustainability and quality of life for the community.